DETAILED ACTION

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the internal combustion engine and two-step valve activation mechanism specified in claim 10 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3753

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-3 and 6-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yokota et al. These claims are anticipated by Figure 1 of Yokota et al. Regarding claim 9, the adjective “engine”, modifying “oil”, does not define over the fluid in Yokota et al. The preamble of claim 10 merely relates to intended use and is given no structural weight in an apparatus claim.

4. Claims 1-4, 6-7, and 10-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Motoki et al. These claims are anticipated by Figure 2 of Motoki et al. The preamble of claim 10 merely relates to intended use and is given no structural weight in an apparatus claim.

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 2 and 10-11 are further rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The recitation of “reducing said first pressure to zero” in claims 2 and 11 is vague and indefinite. Claims 1 and 10 recite a “first and high hydraulic pressure”. By definition, in claims 1 and 10, the “first pressure” is “high”. Therefore, the recitation in claims 2 and 11 of “reducing said first pressure to zero" is vague and indefinite, since the "first pressure" by definition in claims 1 and 10 is "high", not "zero". Claim 10 recites "An internal combustion engine". However, claim 10 does not recite any elements which are specific to "an internal combustion engine".

Therefore, the recitation of "An internal combustion engine" in claim 10 appears to relate to intended use. Absent any claimed structure specific to "an internal combustion engine", the claim is incomplete.

7. Claim 5 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
